The crowd was small and the accommoda- of Philadelphia tonight in the fourth tions poor. The games were scheduled for 8 o'clock sharp, but the crowd was kept standing in front of closed doors until 8:30, and the games did not start until nearly 9 p. m.

It was also reported that the public would be kept off of the playing floor and then gymnasium pupils were allowed to occupy them. Spectators who had paid for their seats were greatly dis-

the first that the L. D. S. would win, although both these teams played better than the fives which followed them. The first game was very slow, time being taken out on several occasions, so that it was after le o'clock when it ended. Both teams in preliminary practice showed speed and accuracy in throwing the baskets. However, when the game begin the Stage fright. The well-organized in poling of the Saints constituents demoralized the visitors. Coach Lunds above began in which wind style and ran in a good lead right at the lump. They were never headed. The first period ended with a 6-to-11 score in favor of take local quintette.

In the second half the southerness braced and reduced the lead of their opponents to one point. Familiarity with the foor and superfor condition enabled the L. D. S. to win.

The sucre see-sawed back and forth and the result could not have been predicted until the very end. #### BOXING AND MAT CONTESTS IN PROVO

Special to The Tribune.

PROVO, Feb. 29—Tonight there was staged at the opera house a good exhibition of boxing and wrestling. The principal boxing bout, between Henry Jones and George Cordosh, scheduled to go eight rounds, ended in the fourth, when Jones sent Cordosh to the mat for the full count. Cordosh was not insensible, but had no fight left in him.

The wrestling match between L. Duke and M. Wood was won by the latter, Wood put Duke down in eighteen minutes.

BILL WATKINS IS REAL "BLACK HOPE"

By International News Service.

By International News Service.

NEW YORK, Feb. 29.—Bill Watkins of Nashville. Tenn. distinguished himself as a real "black hope" when he knocked out Black Bill of Philadelphia tonight at the National Sporting club.

The end came in the sixth round from a well-directed right hook to the jaw.

Watkins appeared to be a pretty nifty two-handed fighter. He had a corking left jab, with which he staved off Billy's tushes and in close quarters he showed a pippin of a right uppercut. He uppercut Black Bill hard enough during the abbreviated battle to knock out several ordinary fellows.

"Knockout" Shrader Meets His Match, Getting a Draw

Peyton proved that he still has line wallop which made him a favorite earlier in the winter.

The other good mix-up was between "Blocky" Price and Inch Euttry of Ogden. Buttry weighed 182 pounds, while Price tipped the scales above 170 and looked much bigger than the fair-haired iad from Ogden. For the first round they stood up before each other and made queer motions with their hands, landing scarcely a blow. The crowd suspected them of had faith and a deristye murmur came from the faith as at the bell tapped ending the first period.

The boys soon proved, however, that they were willing to mix it, but neither was eager to begin. In the second round the Ogden lad electrified the crowd by sending Price's head back time and again with straight rights. Price stood his ground and landed some heavy swings on Suttry's face, starting his nose to bleeding. They exchanged blows at a furious rate in this round and when they sat down, fans stood up and cheered.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Al Shrader's wonderful run of knockouts was terminated last night, when he boxed four rounds with Charles Midkiff and got only a draw instead of put ting over a haymaker. Until this bout Shrader had won his last five matches
by knocking out his adversaty.

Midkiff is a tough boy and Shrader did not seem to be in as good form as usual.
Both lads landed time and again, but they did fittle damage. Shrader's blows had the usual force behind them, but they were less skiifully delivered than usual and did not often land on vulnerable spots.

Although this set-to was the headliner in Willard Bean's athletic entertainment in the San-Gym, two other bouts pleased the crowd better. In one of these, Harlan Peyton, after I minute
and If seconds of whirtwind boxing, knocked out 'Blacky' Dietz. While this go was brief, it was hurricane milling and Peyton proved that he still has hie wallop which made him a favorite earlier in the winter.

Second. Price got in a number of hard blows, one of which brought so much claret from Buttry's proboscis that Boxthat was hespattered with blotches of red. The Ogden lad with blotches of red. Th try's friends dissented, but Bean was right.

The match which opened the card was a three-round go between John Lithgow and Charles Levin, both soldiers from Port Pouglas. Lithgow belongs to Company C and his opponent is a Company K man, so the rivalry was intense. The bout was a draw.

The closing number was a four-round aession between Jack Downey and Ern Wright of Murray, Downey was Wright's superior at every stage of the game and won the decision.

won the decision.

Jack Price was to have boxed with Peyton, but he was insufficiently trained, so Promoter Bean substituted
